

WORKING IT OUT: PEER MEDIATION AND CONFLICT RESOLUTION

AN INTERACTIVE WORKSHOP

Montessori education is known for its emphasis on social-emotional learning, peace education, and inclusive social communities. Here are practical steps you can take to make these big ideas an everyday reality in your primary, elementary or middle school class:

- Empower the children in your class to resolve differences so that everyone wins
- Learn and practice the key steps to conflict resolution
- Teach older elementary or middle school students to serve as peer mediators

Location:

Montessori School at Emory
3021 North Decatur Road
Decatur, GA 30033

Date and time:

Saturday, March 16, 2019
8:45 am - 12:00 Noon

Cost and credits:

Cost: $75 by February 8,
$85 after February 8

Credits: 3 BFTS hours

Presenter:

Julie Carnes, LPC

Julie Carnes, Licensed Professional Counselor, is co-founder and clinical director of The Hirsch Academy, a school for children with developmental, learning, and regulatory challenges using a DIR approach. Julie was a Montessori teacher for twelve years and the education director for ten years of a Montessori school serving over 300 children from preschool through middle school.

Register online: <https://montessori-partnerships.org/register>

Montessori Partnerships for Georgia