

TOILET AWARENESS THE MONTESSORI WAY

AN INTERACTIVE WORKSHOP

Join Pamela Baumbarger as we explore two keys of toilet awareness and how to incorporate them into your classroom.

- Skip toilet training by increasing the child's awareness around toileting activities and helping him learn to manage his own body.
- Offer the child independence in the bathroom and make toilet awareness an easy and natural process.

Location:

Montessori Institute of Atlanta
2991 North Decatur Road
Decatur, GA 30033

Date and time:

Saturday, March 2, 2019
9:00 am - 12:00 noon

Cost and credits:

Cost: $50 by February 1,
$60 after February 1

Credits: 3 BFTS hours

Presenter:

Pamela Baumbarger

Pamela has established and worked in both infant and toddler classrooms for the past sixteen years. She holds an AMI Montessori 0-3 diploma and a master's degree in education and is an AMI Montessori Consultant. In addition to her Montessori work, Pamela is a doula and childbirth educator, and has worked as a professor at Athens Technical College.

Register online: <https://montessori-partnerships.org/register>

Montessori Partnerships for Georgia